

Mario Dellavedova

Sense Exercises / Sans Exercise

24 March – 26 May, 2023

Preview: 23 March 6–8 p.m.

Sprovieri is delighted to present Sense Exercises / Sans Exercise, Mario Dellavedova's fourth solo exhibition at the Gallery.

The artist's conceptual work juxtaposes artefacts, furniture, textiles and everyday objects. Dellavedova creates works that through the richness of their materials and the refinement of their detail undermine their own quotidian function. By juxtaposing familiar and ordinary elements these works create an atmosphere of intimacy with mystical nuances that overwhelm the viewer with feelings and emotions. By including words and mundane sentences in works which are similar to paintings, the artist seems to evoke the banality of painting and its subjects as well as his detached and ironic spirit.

“Sense exercises / sans exercise”: contradictions in terms. Meaningful exercises.

What are normally considered infrastructures for displaying works of art (frames, pedestals, furnishings), are presented in their purity as the work itself.

These elements, elevated to the status of artwork, formally play with the actual support structures within the exhibition, thus beginning a game of mirrors and an elaboration of a guided, didactic, progressive sense.

TO DO/ TODO (“verb” in English, “noun” in Spanish), ART, I WOULD PREFER NOT TO.

The circus of art has arrived in the city with its lights and its reference to the traditional materials of sculpture (ceramic and porcelain). The caption turns into artwork in the work The Aby Warburg Dionysus broken mirror, a wooden mirror with a gendered shape as a face, where the only reflecting parts are the silver letters of the inlay.

A medium representation in various silver papers with the same words as the wooden mirror, in this case without a frame, closes the circus of the exhibition in an aphoristic form.
